Privacy Notice

Data isn't a big part of what we do at the Hall, but we are committed to maintaining the trust and confidence of everyone that uses our site and our hirers by being GDPR-compliant.

Whether you are browsing our website, subscribing to our news, or hiring the hall, here is where you'll find information on how we protect your privacy and keep your data safe and secure.

Visitors to our Website

When someone visits our website www.allsaintsvillagehall.org, we use a third party service, Google Analytics, to collect standard internet log information and details of visitor behaviour patterns. We do this to find out things such as the number of visitors to the various parts of the site. It helps us to understand which content is popular and how we can create more useful content. This information is only processed in a way which does not identify anyone. We don't make, and don't allow Google to make, any attempt to find out the identities of those visiting our website.

If we do want to collect personally identifiable information through our website, we will be up front about this. We will make it clear when we collect personal information and will explain what we intend to do with it. For instance signing up to our news.

News Sign Up

As part of the registration process for our e-news (which will be sent on an ad-hoc basis when we have something important to promote or say), we collect limited personal information. We use that information for a couple of reasons: to tell you about stuff, events or news you've asked us to tell you about; to contact you if we need to obtain or provide additional information; to check our records are right. We don't rent or trade email lists with other organisations.

If and when we do send e-news we will gather basic statistics around email opening and clicks to help us improve our e-news. You can unsubscribe to e-news at any time of the day or night by clicking the unsubscribe link at the bottom of any of our emails or by emailing our web guru jackylarcombe@gmail.com.

Hall Hirers

If you have hired the hall, you can be assured that we respect your privacy and personal data. If your personal details are included in any data we use, protecting that information is important to us, it is stored securely and not passed on to other organisations.

This privacy notice does not cover the links within this site linking to other websites. Those sites are not governed by this Privacy Policy, and if you have questions about how a site uses your information, you'll need to check that site's privacy statement.
